Accounts These guys play a mean guitar, too! We pride ourselves on making one of the best bands in the area, and I have to say, we are off to a pretty great start. We've got our 4th or 5th show in a row and now we have even more returning bands lining up to play, as well as a few new venues to play in.

The guys aren't shy about sharing the stage with other bands, and that's what makes us all so great together. No matter if you're old school or new school, 4th of July show or show at the state fair, we're ready. So come and experience one of the best line-ups around. Download Testo God Save the King, Ver Sacrum Menico was born in Sampaio, Brazil, in a family of molders. He was the seventh of 11 children. He studied art in a private college and design in an academy. He made a lot of sculpture and furniture with a lot of wood and plastic. In 1999, he moved to Monterrey, México. There, he devoted a lot of time to a magazine that began as: ClAUDIO DistinÃ§Ã£o Sampaio. It was a magazine of poetry, for a little group of friends. He contributed with poetry, theater, photography, articles and cartoons and through all that, the name of the magazine became known all over the city. This magazine was known with different names: GENTLEmenious ADVISOR and ADVISOR 40. In 2000, he published the booklet named: The golden lines, and the following year, in 2001, published the book that he still owns: Philosophy of Happiness. In 2012, Menico moved to Canada, where in 2013, he was featured in the magazine Metropoll, with the literary article: A gift of the mind. In 2014, he was part of the anthology titled: I am here: collective work. Menico has collaborated in the publishing of the following collective albums: Pilgrimage (2009), all the
